Logan Talent Singing With Ogden Choir

It is with considerable interest and much city pride that we peruse the program rendered at Brigham City, Wednesday evening of this week by the Ogden Tabernacle choir. Miss Emma Lucy Gates, Mr. William R. Worley and Mr. Leon Hoffmeister, are listed as the soloists of the choir. We all know the ability of Miss Gates who has given many local exhibitions and we are particularly delighted with the happy selection made by Prof. Joseph Bailliantyne, director of the choir, in obtaining our own townsman W. R. Worley, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Worley of this city, to take a leading role with this distinguished body of singers who are soon to make a tour of the Pacific coast, filling an engagement at the San Francisco fair during this month.

Among those of this city who attended the grand concert at Brigham City were Mr. and Mrs. William Worley, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Nelson and Mrs. L. F. Strobel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Worley. The choir was given a warm reception by the Box Elder citizens. The tabernacle was filled to capacity.
